

What Buyers are saying about Gayle Pietras:

"Gayle was more than a realtor...more than an agent buying and selling a home. She found us the perfect home and guided us through the process with perfection. Gayle took care of many details that I seriously doubt another agent would tackle. We are extremely happy and Gayle made sure that would be the end result."

Sylvia and Robert Payne

"We love our new place and your guidance throughout the process was so helpful and re-assuring, and we appreciated how much you went out of your way to keep things on track. You rock!"

Jennifer Holthaus and Chester Fung

"Gayle was very professional, dedicated and resourceful. She was also very responsive and reliable, but one thing that makes Gayle really special was that she treated us like we were her personal friends. Gayle guided us in the right direction and gave a lot of sound advice which lead us to buying our first home way sooner than we would have expected. I would recommend Gayle to anyone who is looking for a great Realtor."

Ouida Liu

"We were first time homebuyers, attorney/financial analyst by training, and conservative, a set of characteristics some agents might find challenging. Gayle was enthusiastic about working with us, explaining the process, and addressing issues that we raised. We found Gayle to be patient, responsive, and thoughtful. Gayle's priority was to find us a property that was right for us and that we would be happy with. We had a very positive experience with her and recommend her with enthusiasm."

Keith Hand and Suiwen Huang

"It was great working with Gayle. She truly made me feel like I was her first priority through her hard work and dedication. What amazed me the most was her willingness to go beyond what other realtors will do. She asked the right questions to get a feel for what type of property I was looking for and then previewed properties beforehand. She is very knowledgeable and always prompt in following up or researching questions I had. I highly recommend her and will have no hesitation in sending any of my friends to her in the future!"

Donald Wong

"Throughout the process, my husband and I felt that due to Gayle's knowledge and professionalism, she had our best interests in mind. Gayle knew what would make us happy in a home and was honest and open with us in considering all of our options, unlike other realtors that seem to just be interested in making a sale. "

Mary Aycock and Kent Smith

"At every step, Gayle was open and candid with suggestions and recommendations regarding any concerns I had. Due to Gayle's real estate knowledge and more importantly, her integrity, I full heartedly trusted that she had my best interests in mind. The seller and agent of my new home can attest to her professionalism and presentation skills as that made the deal for me!"

Sangita Patel

"Gayle Pietras has been a friend for years and recently she became my real estate agent. When I decided it was time to buy my first home, there was no question that I'd go with Gayle. Her professionalism and knowledge of the process never ceased to amaze me. Plus her ability to keep me calm and explain things in a manner I could understand was greatly appreciated. She is still my friend but on a professional basis, I highly recommend her as a real estate agent.

Pat Haggerty

"Gayle is a rarity in the world of realtors today. Her dedication to her work, and personal integrity made her the best choice for Damion and I as first time homebuyers. Gayle introduced us to the home buying process and explained in great detail how to prepare financially. We are more than satisfied with the flawless quality of her work."

Stephen Ellenwood and Damion Smith

"For anything we needed, for whenever we needed, regardless of how short of a notice we gave her; Gayle was always there for us. We are incredibly happy with her responsiveness and follow-through and I would continue to turn to Gayle for all of my real estate needs."

Luciana Viana and Leo MacHado

"I felt that I was the number one priority. When it came time to play "real estate poker" (the negotiating process), Gayle guided me right through. This was a procedure that I was neither comfortable nor familiar with. Now that I have purchased my first property, I feel very seasoned thanks to Gayle's help and expertise."

Diana Zocchi

"What really impressed me about Gayle Pietras was that even after the deal closed, she continued to look out for my interests and found that the escrow company had lost $1,100 of mine. Gayle stayed with it until this money was placed into my account. I would use Gayle again to buy or sell a home, and advise people I like to do the same."

Tony Flynn

"My wife and I started thinking about buying our first home around the middle of 2007. We figured since we were both young, intelligent, working professionals that we could do this on our own. We couldn't have been more wrong. Buying a home is a lot more work than we could imagine and we hit a lot of bumps along the way. Gayle was very patient with us and her experience and follow-through was irreplaceable."

Richard and Miriam

"Nicole and I were pleased to have Gayle as our realtor during 3 months of our first home search. We felt extremely confident in her performance. Her presentation to the seller was instrumental in having our offer accepted. Gayle clearly is a hard worker. Most importantly, Gayle was diligent in finding all the information we needed to make the right decisions."

Marina Garza and Nicole Roberts

"The the thing that impressed me the most was how prepared Gayle was for every time we got together. She visited all the properties earlier and was ready to answer questions and make comments on things she had observed. She even had spare batteries available when my digital camera went out. Finally, she was more patient with me than I would have been."
